

MOVIE STILLS

GROUP
D

Stills from the movie :

Jubilee, 1978

by Derek Jarman

Jubilee, 07:40

Jubilee, 12:33

“No one’s interested in the ballet anymore.”

Jubilee, 14:34

“She thinks she’s a revolutionary out to better the world. I’m not so sure.”

Jubilee, 19:27

Jubilee, 21:49

“The prisons we live in today might have taken more than a day to build but it doesn’t take long to destroy them”

Jubilee, 26:08

“Painting’s extinct. Art isn’t. It’s just a habit.”

“Artists steal the world’s energy. They become blood donors. Their lifeblood drips away until they’re bled dry.”

Jubilee, 33:50

“This is the generation who grew up and forgot to lead their lives. They were so busy watching my endless movie. It’s power, babe. Power.”

Jubilee, 40:22

“Your mind’s like a faded collage of Penthouse and true romance.”

Jubilee, 49:54

“Personally, though, I prefer the world dead. It’s cleaner.”

Jubilee, 55:07

“Sight : concrete,
Sound : the telly,
Touch : plastic,
Taste : plastic.”

Jubilee, 01:08:00

“Welcome to the palace of heavenly delights.”

Jubilee, 01:11:50

“Progress has taken the place of heaven.”

Jubilee, 01:14:03

Jubilee, 01:19:15

“What did you expect? She never carried a gun. Not even a knife”

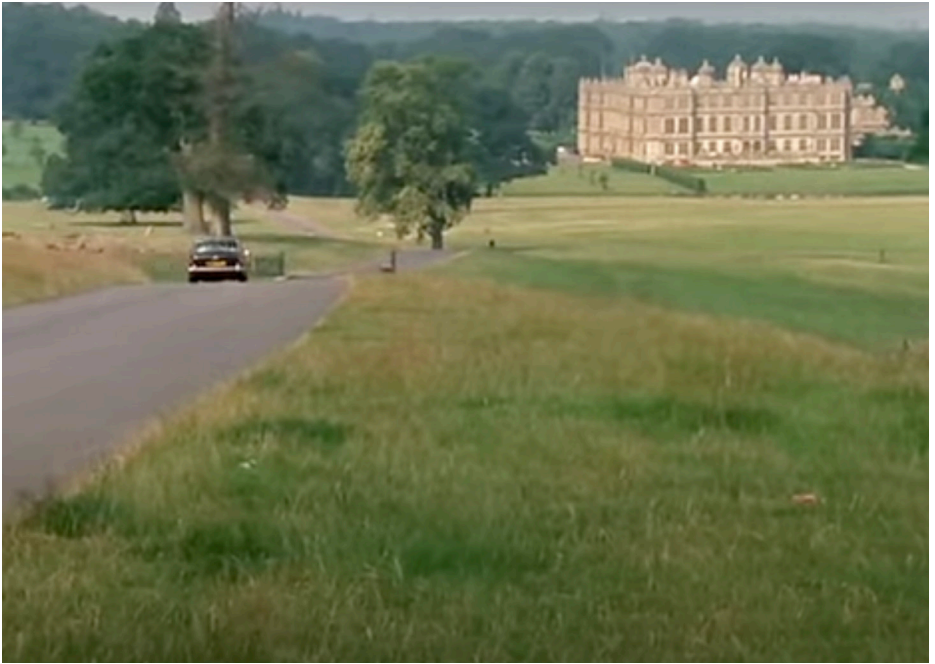

Jubilee, 01:33:48

“No future!”

Jubilee, 01:35:38

Jubilee, 01:37:03

“It’s a tragedy that socialism and freedom weren’t compatible.”